

Rules and Regulations

- Undergraduates of any University or Higher Educational Institute are eligible to participate in this competition.
- All teams must comprise of 3 to 5 members. One person can represent only one team.
- Participants in a team should represent the same University or the Higher Educational Institute.
- All ideas should be novel and innovative.
- Ideas should be presented in a proposal, following the sample proposal structure and the guidelines given.
- Proposed idea cannot be changed. Final product may have added features.
- Selections will be conducted in 3 stages;
  - Stage 1 – The submitted proposals will be shortlisted into 30 teams.
  - Stage 2 – 10 Final teams will be selected; 8 teams based on their Initial idea pitch (ideaX) and 02 MIT teams selected from the Intra Department Ideasprint at the Department of Industrial Management.
  - Stage 3 – 3 winners will be rewarded at the hackX Final event.
- Final 10 Teams will be given 01-month long idea implementation period (Workx) to develop their ideas into products. Workx will consist of two Technical Webinars, a Business Webinar and a Social Media and Marketing webinar in the aim of providing industrial guidance for the implementations.
- A mentor will be allocated for each team during the idea implementation period (Workx)
- An interactive web platform will be introduced at the commencement of the event. Teams are requested to communicate with their mentors and submit progress report forms through the web platform.

Rules and Regulations

- All participants are required to attend the Technical Webinars, Business Webinar and Marketing Webinar.
- Participants can virtually attend webinar sessions.
- Note that the attendance for webinars and submission of progress reports on or before the deadline is compulsory. Inability to do so can cause disqualification or deductions in the final marks.
- Teams should come up with a prototype of their idea for the final product demonstration.
- Resources for development will not be provided during the Idea Implementation Period (Workx) or prior.
- Note that judges' decision will be final and irrevocable.
- Participants are required to log on to the event session at least 15 minutes before the acknowledged time.
- The ownership of the idea and the product will be held by the developing team.